Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 11.
THE CAPITAL.

Things have quieted down once more.

The local excitement is subsiding. People's can be in a tumult always.

The friends are too tedious to sensational.

The Friends' question wagon is at its usual pace. Pauline, with a host of earnest Hancock men to aid his pretensions, the action of the Tennessee Democratic Convention review the mention of Andrew Johnson. It is not thought, however, that he will gain his name to before the New York Convention. He expressed great satisfaction that his own State had seen proper to express a preference for him.

WOOLLEY HIMSELF AGAIN.

After all the "sound and fury signifying nothing", the radicals have been forced to release Woolley. He responded to day as a freeman, after an examination of his record, he was evidently a large-spirited soul, and his release may be considered as an evidence of the waning influence of Ben Butler.

A LUCKY YANKEE.

The friends of the Hon. Amos Burlingame say he has made off half a million of dollars out of his Chinese service. If he carries his present scheme to successful completion he is expected to be the richest man in the world.

THE CHASE MOVEMENT.

It is said that Chief Justice Chase is gaining ground in the South. His late visit to Richmond was not without effect, if rumor is to be believed. Those who represent his interests declare that he will make a very emphatic showing at New York on the 4th of July. It is still hinted that he would like to travel to Europe, Gossyp' alibi is it that he has urged the President to pardon Jeff Davis. If this is true it will certainly give him strength in the South.

A NEW DOCTRINE.

Grant was asked the other day what he meant by having no policy to oppose the will of against the people. "I mean," he is reported to have replied, "that which ever way Congress goes I will go; for I consider that Congress is the people."

THE OLD DOMINION.

The prospect in Virginia is very hopeful. With a fair election the conservatives hope to defeat the constitution, and there is ground to hope for a fair election. The crops are said to be flourishing. Henry A. Wise is in delicate health.

GEN. HENDERSON.—The Standard-Bitter's—The Transcendent Looked into—Nominations Sent to Senate—Military Changes—Receipt of Customs.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.]

WASHINGTON, June 11.
Major-General Butler arrived here to-day on business connected with the government concerning the affairs of his military district.

The conservative members of the two boards of the Washington city council met in joint session this evening, and were present the appearance of the Republican Alderman—the First Ward, who claimed that he had been compelled to leave the city, was not properly organized, therefore he took his seat among the conservatives. The Board of Aldermen reported that they were still unable to obtain the return from the Republican party of the names of the candidates who determine who is elected Mayor. Under these circumstances they offered a resolution to adjourn till to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of electing a Mayor ad interim, and voted to instruct the Republican managers to attend on the occasion.

The resolution, accompanied by Secretary McColloch, was voted over by Mr. Woolley this afternoon.

The special committee was engaged examining Mr. Woolley this afternoon.

Mrs. Butler and Brooks were to-day examined by the special committee here, before appointed to inquire into Mr. Brooks' conduct in relation to his relative to certain gold transactions.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate to-day:—District Tax; E. C. Darlington, Collector of Customs, Y. W. R. Lee, Assessor of Internal Revenue, Fourth District, N. Y.; W. R. Lee, Assessor of Internal Revenue, Second Ward; Charles J. Harbin, Appraiser of Merchandise, Portland, Maine.

Books of customs for the week ending June 6, $12,744.

Brevet Major General W. H. French has been ordered on court-martial duty.

Major General Thomas D. Wood has been ordered on special duty on account of his services in the cause of the wounded received in the service.

The Conservative members of the City Council, the Lawmen, Radical alderman, forming a quorum of the board, proceeded to the City Hall this afternoon, and after a long and heated meeting, it's done, as previously published, being the election of a mayor to whom a majority had been legally elected.

A preface and resolution were adopted setting forth, that, by the action of Mayors, and the Lawmen, Radical alderman, forming a quorum of the board, proceeded to the City Hall this afternoon, and after a long and heated meeting, it's done, as previously published, being the election of a mayor to whom a majority had been legally elected.

The House went into Committee of the whole on the bill, and the vote was taken to amend the bill so as to exempt from the tax on Change still largely in excess of supply. Legal tenders lower and supply of Change.

Over one hundred delegates arrived to-day, and as many more are expected to-morrow to-morrow.

OHIO.

On motion, Mr. Elliott's bill to propose an election of Radford Commissioners was referred to the Cleveland Base Ball.

Green Street, between Third and Fourth.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 3 A.M.

THE CITY.

Petit Larvency.

George Malone was arrested and commited to jail for stealing a key-holder. D. W. Vooches addressed an important audience at the Masonic Hall, New Orleans, yesterday afternoon, on the political issues of the day.

Quiesce Sabot.

It is said by those who are in the mysteries of the inner temple that the Paschal House lottery may not go off before the fall.

Constitutional Convention.

The Democrats of the Second Congressional District of Indiana yesterday nominated Hon. M. C. Kerr by acclamation for re-election to Congress.

All Solid.

Olszewski, the famous Confederate ordnance officer, passed through Louisville a day or two ago. He is in a bank at Bates Rouge.

A Son Ardent.

Joseph Anderson, a bricklayer, living on Kentucky street fell from a scaffolding yesterday, and broke his leg. It will have to be amputated.

A Dog.

A little negro boy, son of Peter Barber, colored whitewash artist of the golden sands of California, was bitten by a dog yesterday, and will lose his hand in consequence.

Sad.

A young woman, apparently about seventeen years old, was lying on Main street yesterday, between Third and Fourth, dead—The unusual spectacle attracted quite a crowd of persons.

Commonwealth.

The Commonwealth, having fairily blossomed during the last few days, and numerous of visitors, native and casual, have thronged the charming grounds of Cave Hill Cemetery.

Elegies.

The New Albany Lawyer says that Mr.
Edward Glass and Miss Barbara Ann Gilding eloped Wednesday morning from Cincinnati, and will be married Saturday by a Jeffersonville "Squire."

Looking Up.

The ponds in the southern quarter of the city are being rapidly filled, and before Christmas a million dollars' worth of hitherto unrealized real estate will be introduced to the notice of the homebuying public.

Bow-Ball.

The Olympic Base Ball Club have been hosting the Louisville and the leather club, and have been daily defeated by the Athletics, and the result is that a match game has been arranged between them to be played at Cedar Hill next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A close game is anticipated.

Coming Sangereet.

The National Sangereet, which is to be held at the Auditorium, promises great deal of interest among our German citizens. Quite a large delegation from Louisville will attend. The Journal will have its reporters there, as a matter of course. We expect it to be one of the most animated gatherings ever had in this country.

Postal Pictures.

The Roberts Circle F. B. have made arrangements to give a grand picnic at the Woodland Garden on Wednesday next. Pat Bannon, Esq., will be general director, with a committee of arrangements consisting of John Shelly, John Mooney, and Will Horan, and a corps of 500. No pains will be spared to make the affair an exceedingly pleasant one.

The Course of True Love.

Anna Richards, "a young gal from the country," who came to Louisville looking for John Link, "her bear"—they are both from Bourbon county—was arrested yesterday making free with a lace veil in one of the saloons of the Lower Town.
John Moore, of Paris, Ky., is sojourning at the United States.

Dr. John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Mr. T. S. Samuels.

The commercial exercises of Mrs.
Terry's school at Shively closed on Wednesday night, and young ladies have started for their homes. Most of those residing in our city are already at home, and about thirty-five were stopping at the Louisville, yesterday, awaiting the start of the trains to journey home.

Eighteen of them were destined for St. Louis, and six for Arkansas.

He could not stand.

Last October Mrs. E. S. Madsen had her leg broken in a sewer on the corner of Main and Fourth, and was unguarded by
the contractor, Chas. Ober. Mrs. Madsen brought suit in the Common Pleas Court
against the city of Louisville and Chas.
Ober for $10,000 damages. The case was tried and settled yesterday, the jury returning a verdict for $500 against Chas. Ober, defendant, and dismissing the suit against the city.

The Kentucky Telegraph.

This is the name of a new weekly paper just started at Elizabethland, Hardin county, Kentucky. It is edited and published by Mr. Thomas P. Barber, who salutes his readers with the announcement that he is "unashamedly" a member of the Democratic party in its struggle for the restoration of the Constitutional Union of our fathers."

It is neatly printed, of good size, and gives evidence of unsatisfaction, and should be liberally supplied to the Democracy of Harding. In welcoming it to our columns we list what we have long yearned for—prosperity.

A Damaged Suit.

Last October Mrs. E. S. Madsen had her
leg broken in a sewer on the corner of Main and Fourth, and was unguarded by
the contractor, Chas. Ober. Mrs. Madsen
brought suit in the Common Pleas Court
against the city of Louisville and Chas.

Chas. Ober, defendant, and dismissing the
suit against the city.

Father Young.

Very Resolute Case of Concurrence.
Yesterday afternoon we called at the city jail and had a pleasant interview with Father Young. Mrs. Madsen had found him secure, and had been made almost attractive by the many feminine tokens it had received. Bouquets were on the table, flowers adorned the windows; and, to crown the whole, two elderly women were paying the good priest a visit.

Father Young received us with easy countenance, and entered freely upon the subject of his incarceration, which he takes with great philosophy. He is a small man, rather plethoric, with a pleasant and genial address. His opinions are expressed with candor and earnestness, but with intelligence, modesty and dignity.

He says he went to the scene of the riot at the instance of some of the most prominent citizens. He went in his ecclesiastical character, and he regards his action as a protest to the proceedings of the court, which had been rendered against him, who appeared for the bankrupt, Eugene Bacon, Esq., who appeared for John Link, and for Mrs. Ober, who appeared for the plaintiff.

He says he went to the scene of the riot in full. It is material to state, that he did not remain in the street, leaving his horse to the terrible fate which he had so miraculously escaped. But "Betty" had some little presence of mind of her own, and, by the time the horse's bride-ground had struck the ground, she came down in the dust and fled, leaving him to face the terrible fate which he had so miraculously escaped. But "Betty"
